JEWISH STUDIES PROGRAM

DISCOVER THE INFLUENCE OF THE JEWISH STORY

THE CULTURE AND HISTORY OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE EXTENDS ACROSS MORE THAN THREE MILLENNIA, FROM BIBLICAL TIMES TO THE PRESENT, AND SPANS MOST OF THE WORLD, FROM THE MIDDLE EAST TO LATIN AMERICA, AND FROM EASTERN EUROPE TO NORTH AMERICA.

The study of the Jewish experience highlights not only the unique trajectory of Jewish life, but can also be contrasted and compared to that of other minority groups to provide unique perspectives on religion, sociology, politics, and culture.

Jewish Studies at Huron offers students an interdisciplinary look at the history of Judaism and the Jews, examining the religious, social, economic, and cultural development of Judaism and Jewish life, and relationships between Jews and other communities.

Combining courses in Religious Studies, Hebrew, French, History, Political Science, and Philosophy, the program provides a broad outlook on the global impact of Jewish thinkers, political leaders, artists, and communities – providing Leaders with Heart with critical insights on a society, culture, and religion that significantly impacts the world today.

Associate Professor, Philosophy
Teaches Introduction to Modern Jewish Thought

“What the Jewish Studies program offers students is a mature reflection on the collective Jewish memory – the best way to look at Judaism and Jewish identities through an interdisciplinary lens. We challenge students to consider a variety of different Jewish theological ideas about God and the world; the dramatic 5,000-year history of the Jewish people in Israel, the Middle East, Africa, Europe, and North America; Jewish adventures in politics, both tragic and triumphant; Jewish popular culture; and Jewish achievements from finance to medicine and physics.” ■

FIRST YEAR: UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES

Your first year is designed to be all about exploration and discovery. During this time, there are minimal required courses, so you can try out a wide variety of subjects and disciplines. Learn about something completely new. Find your passion.

PROGRAM OPTIONS

	Honors Specialization	Specialization	Major	Minor
Jewish Studies			✓	✓

Students pursuing a Major or Minor in Jewish Studies combine eligible courses at Huron, King's University College and Western University, exploring history, religion, language, culture, art, and politics. They explore Jewish history, Biblical storytelling, ancient wisdom, the law and ethics of the Bible, and are required to take a Hebrew language course. Additional courses are then chosen from three categories: Expressions – Literature and Art; Experience – History and Social Science; and Ideas – Classical and Modern Jewish Thought.

FIRST-YEAR COURSE

INTRODUCTION TO MODERN JEWISH THOUGHT

A first-year course designed to give students the chance to sample the kind of material offered in a Jewish Studies Major or Minor. It looks at recent Jewish philosophical self-understandings, and contemporary Jewish biblical scholarship dealing with moral issues such as sexuality, reproductive issues, the position of women, capital punishment, and the environment.
